Workshop on Monolingual Text-To-Text Generation 2011

Held at ACL HLT 2011

Portland, Oregon, USA
24 June 2011

ISBN: 978-1-61839-252-7
Table of Contents

Learning to Simplify Sentences Using Wikipedia
  Will Coster and David Kauchak ................................................................. 1

Web-based Validation for Contextual Targeted Paraphrasing
  Houda Bouamor, Aurélien Max, Gabriel Illouz and Anne Vilnat ...................... 10

An Unsupervised Alignment Algorithm for Text Simplification Corpus Construction
  Stefan Bott and Horacio Saggion ............................................................ 20

Comparing Phrase-based and Syntax-based Paraphrase Generation
  Sander Wubben, Erwin Marsi, Antal van den Bosch and Emiel Krahmer ............ 27

Text Specificity and Impact on Quality of News Summaries
  Annie Louis and Ani Nenkova ...................................................................... 34

Towards Strict Sentence Intersection: Decoding and Evaluation Strategies
  Kapil Thadani and Kathleen McKeown ....................................................... 43

Learning to Fuse Disparate Sentences
  Micha Elsner and Deepak Santhanam ......................................................... 54

Framework for Abstractive Summarization using Text-to-Text Generation
  Pierre-Etienne Genest and Guy Lapalme .................................................... 64

Creating Disjunctive Logical Forms from Aligned Sentences for Grammar-Based Paraphrase Generation
  Scott Martin and Michael White .................................................................... 74

Paraphrastic Sentence Compression with a Character-based Metric: Tightening without Deletion
  Courtney Napoles, Chris Callison-Burch, Juri Ganitkevitch and Benjamin Van Durme ...... 84

Evaluating Sentence Compression: Pitfalls and Suggested Remedies
  Courtney Napoles, Benjamin Van Durme and Chris Callison-Burch ..................... 91