TABLE OF CONTENTS

Safety Is Critical To Asset Management In The GB Electricity Industry ................................................................. 1
  J. Steed
Building Risk-Based Investment Programmes For The Smart Grid Era ............................................................... 7
  P. Barnfather, D. Hughes
Quantifying the Benefits of Asset Management ........................................................................................................ 12
  M. Justin
Asset Management System LED Transformation In MTR ....................................................................................... 18
  D. Leung, Q. Leung
The Contradictions In Modern Naval Asset Management And Their Resolution .................................................... 22
  S. Graham, C. New
Start As You Mean To Go On: Gaining PAS-55 Certification And Embedding It In The Organisation 2011 ............................................................... .......................................................... 27
  D. Michie, T. Mundy
Driving Capital Efficiency Through PAS 55 ................................................................................................................. 32
  P. Edwards, N. Bochereau
Optimising Maintenance: How To Join Up Property Decision-Making ................................................................. 35
  T. Wright, I. Smith
Deriving Value From PFI & PPP Through Effective Asset Valuation And Management In The Public Sector ................................................................. .......................................................... 40
  J. Huntingdon, B. Fitzpatrick
Smart Asset Management for Utilities ......................................................................................................................... 46
  D. Chakraborty, A. Quail
A Regulatory Approach To The Assessment Of Asset Replacement In Electricity Networks ........................................ 50
  S. Yi, C. Watts, A. Cooper, M. Wilks
Managing Information Risks In Asset Management – Experiences From An In-Depth Case Study In
The Utility Industry ................................................................................................................................................. 56
  A. Borek, P. Woodall, M. Gosden, A. Parlikad
Challenges Of Developing Whole Life Cycle Cost Models For Network Rail’s Top 30 Assets ................................. 62
  M. Skinner, A. Kirwan, J. Williams
Whole Life Costing: Completing The Analysis: Asset Investment Strategies, Business Planning And Financing For Infrastructure Companies 2011 ............................................................................................................. 68
  D. Michie
Is Reliability Centred Maintenance (RCM) Making A Comeback And If So Will It Prove To Be A Worthwhile Investment? ...................................................................................................................................... 71
  R. Lobley
Building An Asset Management Organization From Zero Base To Going Concern In 2.5 Years – Case Study ........................................................................... 75
  D. Leeuwen
Asset Management? For Roads? Developing A Holistic Asset Management Approach In A Local Highway Authority Service .................................................................................................................................. 81
  J. Munslow
Bord Gais Networks Transformation Programme - Evolving To An Asset Centric Organisation .................................. 87
  S. Casey, J. Buckley
The Setting Up Of An Internal Asset Management Consultancy In A Division Of A Transnational Corporation To Identify Operational & Business Risk Relating To Asset Management Maturity And Business Processes ............................................................................................................................................... 93
  I. Hardy, J. Fennell
Two Different Approaches To Being Effective Utilizing Asset Management Principles In Two
Southern California Water Agencies ....................................................................................................................... 99
  Y. Sivalingam
A Field Proven Vision On Asset Management In An Industrial Environment .............................................................. 105
  J. Aelst
Applying Shared Services To Public Sector Property And Facilities Asset Management ........................................ 110
  T. Miles
Alcoa Global Primary Products’ Reliability Excellence Evolution ........................................................................... 115
  W. Allen
Driving New Insights in Asset Utilisation by Utilising RFID Technology to deliver Asset Status Updates in Real-Time
B. McGreen, Z. Xie

Optimal Timing for Replacing Aging or Obsolete Assets
J. Woodhouse

Aligning Proactive Safety Leadership With World Class Asset Management
R. Wakelen

Supportability And Purchasing Decisions For Capital Assets: Positioning Paper
J. Puig, S. Hoekstra, B. Huisman, L. Dongen

The Balance Of Insourcing Versus Outsourcing: Is There A Right Answer For Utility Operational Delivery Models?
A. Cook

Smooth Transition From Time Based Maintenance To Condition Based Maintenance Strategies For Electrical Infrastructures
Q. Zhuang, D. Djairam, W. Cao, K. Wu, J. Smit

Data Analysis In The Water Industry: A Best Practice Guide
R. Murray, D. Gee

Improving The Rail Industry’s Vehicle-Track Interaction Strategic Model (VTISM) To Include Wheelset Management Modelling
S. Mills, D. Ling, A. Bevan, A. Rhodes, P. Molyneux-Berry

Defining an Asset Management Strategy for Aerospace MRO Functions Using Monte Carlo Methods
A. Thomas, M. Francis, H. Rowlands

A Business Analysis Methodology For Integrated Equipment Health Management In High Value Assets
I. Fan, R. Verma, I. Jennions, A. Dubicka

A Risk-Based Approach For The Assessment And Management Of Infrastructure Assets
J. Mian, A. Whittlestone, D. Patterson, D. Rudrum

Statistical Life Data Analysis For Electricity Distribution Cable Assets - An Asset Management Approach
R. Mehairjan, D. Djairam, Q. Zhuang, J. Smit, A. Voorden

The Impact Of Evolving Smart Grids On Network Asset Management
C. Ross, G. Eastwood, L. Malloy

Author Index