MARSIM 2000
Table of Contents

Joint Titles

Classification of Maritime Simulators, the Final Attempt

Introducing DNV’s New Standard

Stephen Cross 1

Martin Olofsso

Training Titles

Evaluating Simulators for Use in Assessment of Mariner Proficiencies

Myriam Witkin Smith 8

Marvin C. McCallum

Maritime Simulation Training for Nuclear Power Operators

Harry J. Crooks 16

Douglas Pierce

Developing Industrial Competencies through Virtual Environments

M. C. Newton 21

Engine Room Resource Management Using a Full Mission Simulator

Dwight Hutchinson 28

Applications of Interactive Tug Simulation

J. H. Wulder

W. Hoebbe

A. J. Kooren

D. G. Ramsey

R. Wenz

Prediction Information to Improve Navigational Performance

Leo van Breda 43

Simulation of Tug - VLCC Operations in Training on Ship Handling Using Manned Models

Lech Kobylnsk N/A

Jacek Nowicki

CAORF Ship Operation Center (SOC) - Recent Advances in Marine Engine and Deck Simulation at the Computer Aided Operations Research Facility (CAORF)

Joseph J. Puglisi 54

Jack Case

George Webster

VTS Operator Testing: Selection Methodology and Situation Awareness

Erik Wiersma N/A

Wim van Padje

Rene Butter

Dominic Jarvis
New Programmatic Approaches to Modeling and Maintaining Maritime Simulation Databases
Will Richards  N/A

Tugs Simulation More Than Mooring Assistance Alone
Johan de Jong  N/A

A Computer-Based Testbed for Designing the Control of Vertical Motions of a Fast Ferry
Segundo Esteban  72
Jose M. Giron-Sierra
Bonifacio de Andres Toro
Jesus M. de la Cruz

Shiphandling Simulators Validity. Validation and Correction Of Mathematical Models
A. D. Gofman  77
V. M. Manin

A Study on the Systematic Validation of the Ship Handling Simulator’s Function Corresponding Nautical Missions
Yasuo Arai  88
Shiro Arai
Hiroaki Kobayashi
Makoto Endo
Masanori Endo
Hiroyuki Mizuno
Masanori Tsugane
Shoichi Senda
Shin Murata
Tomoki Oku

Applying Virtual Environment Technology to the Development of Shiphandling Navigation Displays
Elizabeth Sheldon  104
James E. Patrey
Robert B. Breaux

Simulator Experiments for Developing a Navigation Support System
Junji Fukuto  115
Masayoshi Numano

Effective Procedure for Improvement of Light Aids to Navigation through Simulator Experiments
Keiko Miyazaki  125
Masayoshi Numano
Kunihiki Tanaka
Yoji Murohara
Tadatsugi Okazaki
Junji Fukuto
Yasuyuki Niwa
Masato Takahashi

Smart Approach to Developing and Optimizing Maritime Simulation Databases by Open-GIS Technologies
Changmin Lee  132
Hanjin Lee
Inyoung Gong
Sunhee Park
Geewon Yun

New Standards of MET using Ship Handling Simulator
Hiroaki Kobayashi  148
Makato Endo
Yasuo Arai
Shin Murato
Takahiro Takemoto
Susumu Toya
Shoichi Senda
Hiroyuki Mizuno
Masatoshi Endo
Michio Hayashi
Seeking a Common Approach to the Use of Marine Simulators for the Training of Seafarers-Can Current and Planned Research in Europe Provide an Answer?

Peter Muirhead 161

Features Important for Simulator Training with Emphasis on the Own Ship Mathematical Model

Peter Sorensen 169
Jacob Petersen
Jens Romeling

Ice Navigation Simulator

Robert L. Wolfe N/A

Star Cruises Ship Simulator

Gustaf Gronberg N/A

Maneuvering Titles

An Element-Type Mathematical Model Derived From a Simplified 3D Vortex System on Ship-Hull Hydrodynamic Forces During Slow-Speed Maneuvering Motion

Keiichi Karasuno 185
Kazuyoshi Maekawa
Yasuo Saito
Hiroshi Ikeda

Numerical Simulation of Air Craft Dynamics

Konstantin I Marveev N/A

On-line Identification of Maneuvering Indices by Using IIR Filters

Tosho Iseki 197
Kohei Ohtsu

Improved Ship Maneuvering Assessment Based on Integration of Advanced Modeling Techniques

Bent K. Jakobsen 205
Jacek Mazurkiewicz
Vladimir Ankudinov

Prototype Measurement of Ship Sinkage in Confined Water

Vlafaimir Ankudinov 218
Larry Daggett
Bent K. Jakobsen
J. Christopher Hewlett

Simulation of Local Cross Current on a Ship in Restricted Mixed Water

W. Hobee N/A
J. H. Wulder
J. Mustsaers

A Study on Ship Maneuvering Characteristics of Ship with Twin-propellers and Twin-rudders in Shallow Water - On the Harbor Maneuvering at Low Speed Range

Atushi Ishibashi 233
Hiroaki Kobayashi

Measurements and Predictions of Wave Response and Vertical Underkeel Clearance in New York Harbor

Randy McCollum 243
Vladimir K. Ankudinov

Simulation Modeling for Operations in a Littoral Environment

Bent Jackobsen 257
Jacek Mazurkiewicz
Eugene R. Miller

Simple Estimating Method on Ship Maneuverability by Means of Maneuvering Performance Database

Tomihiro Haraguchi 273

Cape Fear River Channel Improvement Study

Dennis W. Webb 284
Brian Long
Bruce Fuchs
David Leitch
Calculation of Hydrodynamic Forces Acting on a Ship in Maneuvering Motion
Koji Nonaka  289
Hideki Miyazaki
Tadashi Nimura
Michio Ueno
Takanori Hino
Yoshiaki Kodama

Development of Shiphandling Simulator by Object Oriented Software Design
Teresa Hatch  300
Terry O'Brien

A Method of Predicting Squat Based on Full Scale Validation
Dick J. Engelbracht  308
Michelle Nieuwenhuis
Amanda Tijben

Shiphandling Simulator Study for Boryoung Harbor Design
In-Seong Gong  317
Jin-Whan Kim
Han-Jin Lee
Yeon-Gyu Kim
Sun-Young Kim
Chang-Min Lee

On the Approximate Expression for Hydrodynamic Forces in Ship Maneuvering Motion
Katusro Kijima  N/A
Yasuaki Nakiri

Effects of Stern Hull Form on the Maneuverability for a Tanker
Sun-Young Kim  328
Yeon-Gyu Kim

The Simulation of Tanker Escorting with Integrated Tug-Vessel Shiphandling Simulator
Jussi Martio  N/A
Kai Hopponen

A New Approach of Anchoring VLC’s in Current or Tidal Stream
Max J. van Hilten  346

Criteria for Yaw-checking and Course-keeping Abilities in IMO’s Interim Standards for Ship Maneuverability
Yasuo Yoshimura  367
Kunji Kose
Tomihiro Haraguchi

Prediction of Hydrodynamic Forces from a Database of Maneuvering Hydrodynamic Derivatives
Jakob Buus Peterson  379
Bo Lauridsen

Captive Maneuvering Tests with Ship Models: A Review of Actual Practice, Based on the 22nd ITTC Maneuvering Committee Questionnaire
Marc Vantorre  399

On the Standard Deceleration of Ship Speed by Human Control
Shoichi Senda  416
Hiroaki Kobayashi

On the Ship Maneuverability Dynamic Criteria
Marina Lebedeva  426

System Dynamics Simulation Model of the Marine Steam Turbine-Drive Generating Set
Ante Munitic  431
Luko Milic
Matko Bupic
