Conference Schedule ................................................................. 1

Symposium 1 - Bilingual Aphasia: Treatment & Recovery .................................................. 10
1. What Do We Know about Impairment and Recovery of Language in Bi-Multilingual Aphasia?
   Swathi Kiran, Loraine Obler, Ana Ansaldo, Mira Goral, Marie-Joseph Tainturier and Patricia Roberts .... 10
2. SBFTR - Switch Back through Translation: A Theory-Driven therapy Approach to Word-Finding Deficits in Bilingual Aphasia
   Ana Inés Ansaldo and Ladan Ghazi-Saidi ................................................................. 12
3. Facilitation and Competition Following Treatment in Multilingual Aphasia
   Mira Goral ..................................................................................................................... 14
4. Treating Sublexical Spelling in Bilingual Acquired Dysgraphia
   Marie-Josèphe Tainturier, Jennifer Roberts and Daniel Roberts ........................................... 16
5. Training the Weaker Language to Examine Between-Language Transfer in Bilingual Aphasia Rehabilitation
   Swathi Kiran and Patricia Roberts .................................................................................. 18

Poster Session 1 - Bilingualism; Syntax & Morphology; Reading & Writing ................................ 20
6. Spontaneous Recovery of Linguistic, Narrative, and Cognitive Skills from Bilingual Aphasia in Cantonese and English: A Case Study
   Anthony Pak Hin Kong, Janet D. Whiteside and Allison Raino ............................................. 20
7. Agrammatism in Bilingual Spanish-English Speakers
   Jose G. Centeno ............................................................................................................. 22
8. Naming and Discourse Production: A Bilingual Case Study
   Yi-Ling Dai, Anthony Pak Hin Kong and Brendan Stuart Weekes .......................................... 24
9. Dissociable Memory Processes in Bilingual Speakers: Evidence from EEG
   Kathrin Klingebiel, Sam Hutton, Steve Major and Brendan Weekes .................................... 27
10. The Neural Correlates of Second Language Acquisition: Cross-Linguistic Transfer Effects of Phonological Similarities
    Ladan Ghazi Saidi and Ana-Inés Ansaldo ......................................................................... 29
11. Longitudinal Output Changes in a Case of Logopenic Bilingual PPA
    Alison Hilger, Anthony Pak Hin Kong, Lise Menn, Yushu Yan, Gail Ramsberger and Christopher Filley 31
12. Source Memory in Older Monolinguals and Bilinguals
    Pier-Luc Massicotte, Daniel Adrover-Roig, Ana Inés Ansaldo and Nicole Caza ...................... 33
13. Individual Differences in Executive Function Modulate Bilingual Between-Language Activation during Reading in Healthy Older Adults: Evidence from Eye-tracking
    Irina Pivneva, Aruna Sudarshan, Julie Mercier, Shari Baum and Debra Titone ....................... 35
    Shivani Tiwari and Gopee Krishnan ................................................................................. 37
15. Grammatical Impairment of Code-Switching but Intact Language Selection in Bilinguals with Aphasia
    Amanda Miller Amberber, Lyndsey Nickels, Stephen Crain and Max Coltheart ................... 39
16. Passivization in Spanish Agrammatism
    Sara Sánchez-Alonso, Silvia Martinez-Ferreiro and Asaf Bachrach ..................................... 41
17. Psych Verbs in Spanish Agrammatism
    Silvia Martinez-Ferreiro, Asaf Bachrach and Carme Piccallo ............................................. 43
18. ERP Responses to Argument Structure and Semantic Violations in Sentence Context in Healthy and Agrammatic Aphasic Adults
    Aneta Kielar, Aya Melzer-Asscher and Cynthia Thompson .............................................. 45
19. Agrammatic Aphasia as Underspecification of Phase Features: A Case Study
    Deniz Tat ....................................................................................................................... 47
20. Encoding and Decoding Motion Events in English and French: Comparative Case-Studies in Agrammatism and Anomia
    Efstathia Soroli, Maya Hickmann and Halima Sbaaoui ...................................................... 49
21. Selective Scrambling in a Case of Mixed Transcortical Aphasia
    Ludovico Franco, Elisa Zampieri, Francesca De Biagi, Martina Garzon, Francesca Meneghello and Carlo Semenza 51

doi:10.1016/S1877-0428(11)01792-7
Contents

22. The Interaction among Figure, Ground and Axial Part in a Case of Broca’s Aphasia
   Elisa Zampieri, Ludovico Franco, Ilaria Zannoni and Francesca Meneghello ........................................... 53

23. Orthography and Semantics in Broca’s Aphasia: Evidence from Morphological Processing
   Kyrana Tsapkin, Eleni Peristeri and Gonia Jarema .................................................................................... 55

24. Time Course of Processing of Grammatical Agreement Information in Russian Agrammatism
   Irina A. Sekerina, Olga V. Dragoy and Maria V. Ivanova ............................................................................ 57

25. Evidence for an Atypical Pattern of Lexical Access in Agrammatic Aphasia
   Michelle Ferrill, Carolyn Karinen, Tracy Love and Lewis Shapiro ................................................................. 59

26. Mouse-Tracking Studies of Syntactic Comprehension in Aphasia
   David Caplan and Joshua Levy ................................................................................................................. 61

27. Distinguishing Morphological Processing Impairment from Phonological Impairment in Aphasia
   Tori Miner and Adam Buchwald ................................................................................................................. 63

28. Neural Basis of Semantic and Syntactic Interference Resolution in Sentence Comprehension
   Yi Guo, Randi C. Martin, A. Chris Hamilton, Julie A. Van Dyke and Yingying Tan ..................................... 65

29. Age of Acquisition Effects on Chinese Character Recognition: Evidence from EEG
   Brendan Weeke .............................................................................................................................................. 67

   Marco Marelli, Daniela Traficante, Silvia Aggijaro, Franco Molteni and Claudio Luzzatti .......................... 69

31. Hyperlexia in a Chinese Speaking Child
   I-Fan Su, Carol Kit Sum To and Brendan Weeke ....................................................................................... 71

32. ‘I can write two but not 2’: Evidence for Domain-Specific Within-Modality Dissociation for Number Digits
   Gopee Krishnan, Aparna Pai, Shivani Tiwari and SN Rao ...................................................................... 73

33. Effects of Phonological Complexity Training on Pseudoword Reading in Acquired Phonological Dyslexia
   Ellyn Riley and Cynthia Thompson ............................................................................................................ 75

34. Oral Reading and Writing in Broca’s Aphasia: Implications for the Common and Independent Lexicon Theories
   Venu Balasubramanian and Maureen Costello ............................................................................................ 78

35. Comparison of Reading Performance in Fluent and Non-Fluent Aphasia
   Mary Purdy and Diana Newman ............................................................................................................... 80

36. Three Sides of a Same Coin? An Investigation of Phonological Dyslexia in a Group of Italian Aphasic Patients
   Elena Barbieri, Marco Marelli, Giusy Zona, Paola Saletta, Na’ama Friedmann and Claudio Luzzatti  .......... 82

Platform Session 1 – Dynamics of Phonetics & Phonology

37. On the Nature of Speech Errors in Aphasia: Acoustic Analysis of the Speech Output of 8 Native Speakers of Spanish with Aphasia
   Anna Marczyk, Lorraine Baquè, Alba Rosas and Jean-Luc Nespolous ......................................................... 84

38. Refractory Phonological Access Deficits
   Michael Wolmetz and Brenda Rapp ........................................................................................................... 86

39. Time-Course of Phonetic Encoding and Diverging ERP Correlates in Two Patients with Apraxia of Speech
   Marina Laganaro ............................................................................................................................................. 88

40. The Role of Adaptive Training on Shaping Phonetic Categorization in Aphasia
   Sara Guedicche, Jasmia Stritof, John Mertus, Kathleen Kurowski, Carole Palumbo and Sheila Blumstein .... 90

Symposium 2 – Sentence Processing Deficits & Memory Retrieval

41. Sentence Processing Deficits and Memory Retrieval: A Cue-Based Parsing Approach
   Randi Martin .................................................................................................................................................... 92

42. A Cue-Based Retrieval Theory of Working Memory in Language Processing: Core Computational Principles and Implications for Individual Differences
   Richard Lewis ................................................................................................................................................ 94

43. Modeling Offline and Online (Eye Movements) Sentence Comprehension in Aphasia using the Cue-Based Retrieval Architecture
   Umesh Patil, Sandra Hanne, Shrvanan Vasisith, Frank Burchert and Ria De Bleser ................................. 96

44. Working Memory, Retrieval Interference, and Sentence Comprehension Deficits in Aphasia
   Randi Martin, Yingying Tan and Julie Van Dyke ........................................................................................... 98

45. Sentence Comprehension in Poor vs. Good Readers: A Cue-Based Retrieval Approach
   Julie A. Van Dyke and Clinton L. Johns ....................................................................................................... 100

46. Short-Term Memory, Agrammatism, and Syntactic Agreement
   L. Robert Sleva and Randi C. Martin .......................................................................................................... 102

Poster Session 2 – Intervention; Imaging; Discourse; Lexical Retrieval

47. Verb Retrieval in Non-Fluent Aphasia: An Information-Theoretic Approach
   Lizet Van Ewijk and Sergey Avrutin. ........................................................................................................... 104

48. Treatment of Verbs in Non-fluent Aphasia: Measuring Generalization
   Kristen Maul, Peggy Conner, Daniel Kempler and Mira Goral ................................................................. 106

49. Aphasia Therapy: Methods and Concepts from a Historical Perspective
   Jacqueline Ann Stark ....................................................................................................................................... 108
Contents

50. Use of a Smart-Phone for Rehabilitation in Semantic Dementia: A Case Study
Sonia Routhier, Séverine Jacques, Hélène Pigot, Joël Macoir and Nathalie Bier

51. Aphasia Assessment on Android: Recording Voice, Eye-Gaze and Touch for the BAT
Gina Cook, Alexandra Marquis and André Achim

52. Tasks for Psycholinguistic Assessment in Brazilian Portuguese: Preliminary Results
Rui Rothe-Neves, Regina Lapita, Juliana Pinto, Rachel Lioiolo and Erica Couto

53. Exploration into Feedback and Non-feedback Based Learning in Aphasia
Sofia Vailila and Swathi Kiran

54. Communication Perception of Individuals with Aphasia by Speech-Language Therapists and Relatives
Leticia Mansur, Fernanda Marchezini and Marcela Silagi

55. Aphasia Social Support Network of Residents in São Paulo, Brazil
Aline Peres, Marcela Silagi and Leticia Mansur

56. Is the Cinderella Task Biased for Age or Sex?
Davida Fromm, Brian MacWhinney, Margaret Forbes and Audrey Holland

57. Computational Analysis of AphasiaBank Transcripts and Video
Brian MacWhinney, Davida Fromm, Margaret Forbes and Audrey Holland

58. Quantitative Analysis of Connected Speech in Aphasia: Insights from Greek-speaking Patients with Fluent and Non-fluent Types of Aphasia
Judit Drucks, Maria Varkanitsa, Dimitrios Kasselimis, Constantin Potagas and Ioannis Evdokimidis

59. Textual Density in Narratives Produced by Individuals with Chronic Aphasia
Dalia Cahana-Amiaty, Patricia Fitzpatrick, Michelle Volz and Mallory Finley

60. Imaging the Effects of Implicit Treatments for Apraxia of Speech
Christine Davis, Dana Farias and Stephen Wilson

61. Behavioral Effects and Neural Underpinnings of Phonological Treatment of Anomia 27 Years Post-Onset: An fMRI Case Study
Stefano Magon, Gianpaolo Basso, Rita Capasso, Eleonora Florio, Marialuisa Gandolfi, Francesca Reggiani, Nicola Smania and Gabriele Micelli

62. Treatment-Induced Neuroplasticity Following Intensive Constrained and Unconstrained Language Therapy in a Case of Severe Non-fluent Aphasia
Jacquie Kurland, Nicole Silva, Katherine Burke and Priyanka Iyer

63. An fMRI Investigation of Semantic and Phonological Naming Treatment in Aphasia
Sophia Van Hees, Anthony Angwin, Katie McMahon, Greig De Zubicaray and David Copland

64. The Aging Neighborhood: Phonological Density in Word Retrieval
Jean K. Gordon

65. Nominalization in the Verb-Noun Dissociation
Chiara Zanini and Carlo Semenza

66. Target-Unrelated Verbal Paraphasias: A Case Study
Martina Garzon, Marianna Semenza, Francesca Meneghello, Giulia Bencini and Carlo Semenza

67. Production of Novel and Lexicalized Compounds in Aphasia
Susanne Borgwardt and Arpita Bose

68. Brazilian Portuguese Phonotactic Rules in Phonemic Paraphasias: Report on Three Cases
Lilian Almeida, Erica Couto and Rui Rothe-Neves

69. Phonological Neighborhood Effects in Spoken Word Production in Aphasia
Natalia Bullock-Rest, Alissa Cerny, Carol Sweeney, Carole Palumbo, Kathleen Kuroski and Sheila Blumstein

70. The Mental Representation of Irreversible Binomials: Evidence from a Serial Recall Task
Giorgio Arcara, Sara Mondini, Francesca Mazzaro, Gonia Jarema and Carlo Semenza

71. The Organization of Concrete Concepts
Jingyi Geng, Tao Wei and Tatiana Schnur

72. Neurofunctional Characterization of Verbal Fluency in Successful Aging
Yannick Marsolais and Yves Joanette

Francesca Citron, Marcus Gray, Hugo Critchley, Brendan Weekes and Evelyn Ferschl

74. Stress Matters! A Study on Compound Stress Assignment in Greek-Speaking Individuals with Aphasia
Athanasios Tsiamas, Eva Kehayia, Gonia Jarema, Dimitris Kasselimis, Costas Potagas and Ioannis Evdokimidis

75. Voicing and Tension: When one Phonetic Parameter Compensates for the Dysfunction of Another: A Case Study of an Anarthric Catalan Native Speaker
Alba Rosas, Anna Marczyk, Lorraine Baqué and Jean-Luc Nespoulous

Platform Session 2 – Behavioural & Neural Correlates of Treatment & Recovery

76. Phonology is the Strongest Language Component in Predicting Aphasia Outcome after Stroke
Hanane El Hachioui, Hester Lingsma, Mieke Van de Sandt-Koenderman, Diedrik Dippel, Peter Koudstaal and Ewy Visch-Brink

77. Lateralisation of the Arcuate Fasciculus Predicts Aphasia Recovery at 6 Months
Stephanie J. Forkel, Flavio Dell’Acqua, Lalit Kalra, Steven C. Williams and Marco Catani
80. Marie’s Quadrilateral vs Broca’s Area: Aphasiological History Reconsidered
Loraine Obler and Nina Dronkers ................................................................. 167
81. Broca’s Area and Marie’s Quadrilateral Space in 21st-Century Aphasiology
Nina Dronkers. ................................................................................................ 169

Platform Session 4 ~ Mechanisms of Lexical Retrieval
82. A New Theoretical Model for Word-Finding Difficulties in Aphasia
Marjolein Van Egmond, Lizet Van Ewik and Sergey Avrutin ..................................... 171
83. Phonological Facilitation Effects during Noun and Verb Naming in Agrammatic and Anomic Aphasia
Jiyeon Lee and Cynthia Thompson ..................................................................... 177
84. Lexical Suppression and Semantic Control in Individuals with Aphasia Post-Stroke
Nicole Caza, Gabrielle Ciquier and Anne-Laure Macé ........................................ 180
85. Over-Reliance on Semantic Memory in Immediate Serial Recognition of DRM Lists in Older Adults: Evidence from Articulatory Suppression
Nicolle Zimmermann, Lilian Scherer, Bernadette Ska, Yves Joannette .................. 182
86. Language Disorders and Non-Linguistic Cognitive Deficits in Individuals with Aphasia Post-Stroke
Milena Bonimi and Marcia Radanovic ............................................................... 185
87. Hemispheric Asymmetry Reduction in Older Adults during Access to Semantic Memory
Enzie Abbassi and Yves Joanette ....................................................................... 187
88. Effects of Visual and Auditory Modalities on Repetition and Short-Term Memory in Deep Dysphasia: A Case Study
Lucie Attout, Marie-anne Van der Kaa, Mercedes George and Steve Majerus ........ 191
89. Semantic STM Deficits and Semantic Control
Corinne Allen, A. Cris Hamilton and Randi Martin ................................................ 193
90. Comprehension of Textual Inferences: Effects of Lesions in Right and Left Hemispheres
Marcela Silagi, Marcia Radanovic and Leticia Mansur ......................................... 195
91. Narrative Discourse Comprehension in Right Hemisphere Brain Damage: A Single Case Study
Gislaine Machado Jerônimo, Luiz Carlos Marrone and Lilian Cristine Scherer ....... 197
92. Argumentative Text Comprehension and its Relation with Cognitive Abilities: The Impact of Age and Education Levels
Lilian Cristine Scherer, Rochele Paz Fonseca, Onici Flôres, Rosângela Gabriel, Camila Oliveira and Bernadette Ska. 201
93. Theory of Mind Reasoning in People with Aphasia: The Role of Language and Executive Functions
Vijayachandra Ramachandra and Elizabeth Schneider .......................................... 203
94. Communication Profiles and their Relationship with Executive Functions after Right Hemisphere Stroke
Rochele Paz Fonseca, Perrine Ferré, Maximiliano A. Wilson, Bernadette Ska and Yves Joannette ............................................................ 205
95. Individual Differences in Executive Function Modulate Bilingual Spoken Language Processing in Healthy Older Adults: Evidence from Eye-tracking
Aruna Sudarshan, Julie Mercier, Irina Pivneva, Shari Baum and Debra Titone 207
96. Linguistic Processing and Executive Control: Evidence for Inhibition in Broca’s Aphasia
Eleni Peristeri, Ianti-Maria Tsimpili and Kyrana Tsapkiní ...................................... 209
97. Toward an Expanded Operationalization of the Verbal Expression of Affective Meanings
Gloria Streit Olness and Maria Muñoz ............................................................... 211
98. Knowledge of Tense in Dementia of the Alzheimer Type
Adriana Martins and Celso Novaes .................................................................... 213
99. Grammatical Disorders in Alzheimer’s Disease: Evidence from Verb Inflection in Greek
Valantis Fydanidis, Christina Manouilidou, Eugenia Koufou and Eva Maria Tsapakis 215
Contents

105. Non-Fluent Progressive Aphasia Without Agrammatism or Apraxia of Speech
  Naida L. Graham, David F. Tang-Wai, Sandra Black, Carol Leonard, Regina Jokel, Graeme Schwindt and Elizabeth Rochon .................................................. 223

106. Let's Eat an Ice Cream, Even Though I Don't Know What It Is: Semantic Loss with Syntactic Preservation in an SD Subject
  Annalisa Benetello and Costanza Papagno .......................................................... 225

107. Longitudinal Discourse Changes in Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis
  Angela South, Katie Findlater, Michael Strong and JB Orange ........................................ 227

108. Longitudinal Assessment of Language and Reading in a Case of Corticobasal Syndrome
  Noémie Auclair-Ouellet, Valérie Plante, Marion Fossard and Joël Macoir .................................. 229

109. Non-Verbal Emotion Communication in Patients with Frontotemporal Dementia: A Case Study
  Chinar Dara, Kathleen Kortte, Cameron Davis, Elisa Ochfeld, Melissa Newhart and Argye Hillis ................................................................. 231

110. The Language and Working Memory Abilities of Children with Sickle Cell Disease with and without Silent Cerebral Infarct: A Preliminary Study
  Natalie Ottey, Wilhelmina Wright-Harp, Joan Payne, Caterina Minniniti, Jay Lucker and Barbara Speller-Brown ....................................................... 233

111. On the Language of Hallucinations: Visions (1759) by Charles Bonnet
  Harry Whitaker and Yves Turgeon ........................................................................ 235

112. Transcortical Sensory Aphasia After Extensive Left Perisylvian Lesion: A Case of Mixed Dominance
  Dimitrios Kasselimis, Spyridoula Cheimariou, Constantin Potagas, Panagiotis Simos, Ioannis Evdokimidis and Harry Whitaker ....................................................... 236

Platform Session 5 - Dyslexia & Dysgraphia

113. Interaction between Word-Level and Letter-Level Processing in Written Language: Evidence from Acquired Dysgraphia
  Carolyn Falconer, Tori Miner, Daniela Velez and Adam Buchwald ........................................ 238

114. Orthotactic Influences on Spelling Errors in Dysgraphia
  Simon Fischer-Baum, Michael McCloskey, Don Mathis and Colin Wilson .................................. 240

115. Letter Position Representations in Reading: Evidence from Acquired Dyslexia
  Michael McCloskey, Simon Fischer-Baum and Fatimah Alkhunaizi ........................................ 242

116. What is the Eye Doing during Reading Aloud? Eye-Voice Span in Acquired Dyslexia
  Katja Halm, Irene Ablingtor, Anne Ullmann, Matthew J. Solomon, Ralph Radach and Walter Huber ................................................................. 244
