TABLE OF CONTENTS

Construction and Research of Innovative and Entrepreneurial Practice Platform for Students of Industrial Design ................................................................. 1
  Q. Du, L. Pan

The Structure of Executive Compensation, the Choice of Accounting Policies and the Value of Corporation ................................................................. 5
  X. Wang, F. Wu, Q. Wang

Research on the Influence of Group Dynamics Mechanism on Individual Performance in ESL System ................................................................. 10
  Y. Weng

Research on Cost of Fine Coal Enterprises Management ................................................................. 15
  M. Cheng, Y. Tang

Strategies and Marketing Situation on Agricultural Products in Western China ——Based on Coffee Beans in Yunnan ................................................................. 18
  J. Xiu

The Connotation of Informal Communication and its Application in Long Distance Vocational Education ................................................................. 22
  Q. Xu, X. Li

A Study on Talent Training Mode in Practical English Language Teaching ................................................................. 26
  L. Lu

A Study on the Influence Factors of the University Library Service Image Based on SEM ................................................................. 32
  J. Xuan, M. Ding

Application of Web and Multimodality to Linguistics Teaching ................................................................. 37
  L. Yu, M. Yan

Research on Distance Education Media Based on Movie and Television Courseware ................................................................. 41
  Z. Wang, X. Li

Practice and Thinking about Building Technology Innovation Education ................................................................. 45
  Y. Huang, X. Lv, Y. Zou

Study on BIM Technology Teaching Under The Background of Three-dimensional Design ................................................................. 50
  X. Lv, Y. Huang, Y. Zou

The City Competitive Analysis of Poyang Lake Ecological Economic Zone Based On AHP Analytic Hierarchy Process ................................................................. 54
  W. Lu

Shaanxi Province Low-carbon Economic Construction of the Indicator System and Evaluation ................................................................. 58
  Q. Yang, C. Zhang, F. Li

Design Idea and Model of Teaching System for Engineering Leadership ................................................................. 66
  L. Wang, S. Wang, D. Hu

Research on Small and Medium-sized Enterprise Innovation Dynamic and its Operating Mechanism ................................................................. 71
  J. Wang, B. Zheng, C. Hu

The Reform of Course Teaching and Experimental Teaching of "Computer Architecture" ................................................................. 76
  G. Cai, Y. Yu, L. Wang, Y. Yuan, J. Yang

Large-scale Manufacturing Enterprises in Technological Innovation Team Building ................................................................. 80
  B. Zheng, C. Hu

The Analysis of Teaching Methods’ Reformation Based on Mathematical Modeling ................................................................. 84
  J. Li, J. Zhu

Research on Educational Curriculum Reform of Medical Nursing in Higher Vocational School ................................................................. 88
  Y. Zhu

Discussion on Integrated Specialty Reform of Communication Engineering ................................................................. 92
  J. Zhu, X. Li, Y. Sun

Optimization Design of Groundwater Level Monitoring Network Based on the Geo-Statistics ................................................................. 96
  J. Chen

Personal Knowledge Management and M-learning in the Learning Society ................................................................. 101
  S. Zhuang

Bidding Strategies and Equity Auction Based on Social Network ................................................................. 106
  C. Li, P. Zhang

Privatization, Ownership Structure, and Bank Risk Taking: the Case of Commercial Banks in China ................................................................. 109
  S. Chu, H. Chen, S. Yan

Way to Foster the Application-oriented Talents in Civilian-Run Colleges ................................................................. 114
  C. Yang, X. Li
The Effect of OFDI Reverse Technology Spillovers from ASEAN on China's Economic Growth ...................................................... 118
X. Chen, Y. Li

The Influence of OFDI on Economic Growth: A Quantitative Assessment for China and EU ................................................................. 124
X. Chen, Y. Li

Study on the Practice of H3C Networking Academy in Applied Colleges and Universities .............................................................. 129
X. Yin, X. Li

Reform and Exploration of Independent College Computer Specialty Personnel Training Mode .......................................................... 133
Y. Guo, X. Li

Situation and Promotion of Young Teachers Scientific Research of Independent College ................................................................. 137
X. Wang, X. Li

Discussion of Water Pollution Control Engineering Teaching at Expanding Professional Sustainability Innovation Capacity .................................. 141
S. Zhang, L. Wang

The Nature of Currency is "Credit" ......................................................................................................................................................... 145
S. Wang

Research on Job-Oriented Practical Talents Training Mode - Civil Engineering Major as an Example ................................................. 150
Q. Guo

Study on the Landfill Technology of the Rural Living Garbage Ecological Sanitary ................................................................. 156
X. Zhang

Construction and Research on the Teaching Effectiveness Model of Undergraduates' Social Practice Based on Matrix Theory and Vector Analysis ............................................................................................................. 161
R. Dai

Research on the Application Mode of Computer Simulation Technology in the Study of Economic Law ........................................ 168
H. Wang

The Color Application Research on Environment Art Design Based on the Analytic Hierarchy Process ......................................................... 174
S. Zou

The Application of Physiology Rules in P.E. Research Based on DEA Model of Secondary Relative Evaluation in Operational Research .................................................................................................................................................. 179
Q. He

Research on Value Orientation of PE Teaching Material of Higher Traditional Chinese Medical University Based on the Method of Network Evaluation ................................................................................................................................. 185
Y. Xu, K. Xu

The Construction of Physical Education Curriculum Assessment System Based on Computer Evaluation Technology .................................................. 190
H. Li, R. Zhang

Training Students’ Innovation Capacity Based on Building Practical Teaching System ................................................................. 195
Y. Du, G. Liang, S. Zhang, Y. Liang

The Research and Practice in Bilingual Teaching Mode of Automation Major Courses ......................................................................................... 199
Z. Chen, Z. Li, X. Shang, Z. Wang

Discussion on Bilingual Teaching in Biomedical Engineering .................................................................................................................. 203
Y. Zheng, Y. Wang, Z. Li

Reflection on the Spiritual Value of Network Poetry in the Information Age ................................................................................................................................. 207
Y. Ren, G. Chen

Analysis of Main Factors Affecting the Construction of Harmonious Campus and its Coupling Law ........................................................................ 212
S. Liu

Does Host Countries' Institutional Environment Affect China’s Foreign Direct Investment? ................................................................. 217
X. Xu, S. Liu
