2015 7th International Conference on Cyber Conflict: Architectures in Cyberspace

(CyCon 2015)

Tallinn, Estonia
26-29 May 2015
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction 1

Jason Rivera
_Achieving Cyberdeterrence and the Ability of Small States to Hold Large States at Risk_ 7

Robert Brose
_Cyberwar, Netwar, and the Future of Cyberdefense_ 25

Margarita Jaitner and Peter A. Mattsson
_Russian Information Warfare of 2014_ 39

Tim Maurer, Robert Morgus, Isabel Skierka and Mirko Hohmann
_Technological Sovereignty: Missing the Point?_ 53

Sergei Boeke, Caítriona Heirl and Matthijs Veenendaal
_Civil-Military Relations and International Military Cooperation in Cyber Security: Common Challenges & State Practices across Asia and Europe_ 69

Geoffrey Deweese
_Anticipatory and Preemptive Self-Defense in Cyberspace: The Challenge of Imminence_ 81

Paul Walker
_Law of the Horse to Law of the Submarine: The Future of State Behavior in Cyberspace_ 93

Uchenna Jerome Orji
_Multilateral Legal Responses to Cybersecurity in Africa: Any Hope for Effective International Cooperation?_ 105

Richard Hill
_Dealing with Cyber Security Threats: International Cooperation, ITU, and WCIT_ 119

Jennifer Stoll and Rainhard Bengez
_Visual Structures for Seeing Cyber Policy Strategies_ 135

Alison Lawlor Russell
_Anti-Access/Area Denial @ the Physical Layer of Cyberspace_ 153

Robert Koch and Mario Golling
_Blackout and Now? - Network Centric Warfare in an Anti-Access Area-Denial Theatre_ 169
Andrea Balboni, Michele Colajanni, Mirco Marchetti and Andrea Melegari
Supporting Sense-Making and Decision-Making Through Time Evolution Analysis of Open Sources

Alexis Le Compte, Tim Watson and David Elizondo
A Renewed Approach to Serious Games for Cyber Security

Matteo Casenove
Exfiltrations Using Polymorphic Blending Techniques: Analysis and Countermeasures

Christos Xenakis and Christoforos Ntantogian
Attacking the Baseband Modem of Mobile Phones to Breach the Users’ Privacy and Network Security

Biographies