TABLE OF CONTENTS

Advanced Well Completion Designs to Meet Unique Reservoir and Production Requirements ................................................................. 1
Jacob, Suresh; Naim, Khalid M.

Anisotropy Effect in Geosteering: Anisotropy and D2B Estimate from Directional Resistivity Tool ........................................................... 14
Hagiwara, Teruhiko; Anguiano-Rojas, Pedro

Application of Best in Class Reservoir Management Practices in the Production Startup of a New Giant Field Development through Integration of Real Time Data: A Case Study ................................................................. 23
Al-Ghamdi, Faisal A.; Al-Otaibi, Majid H.; Abitrabi Ballan, Abdel N.

Application of MFO Injections Procedure for MSF Packers Integrity Diagnostic ................................................................. 30
Nugraha, Ikhsan; Said, Rifat

Application of Neural Network to Predict Gas Well Performance During Two-Phase Flow in Gas Condensate Reservoirs ................................................................. 40
Al-Dhamen, Mohammed A.

Assessment of Reservoir Saturation Monitoring in Newly Developed Carbonate Reservoirs ................................................................. 49
Alkaba, Fatima H.

Bottom-Hole Assembly Management System (BHAMS) ............................................................................................................................ 61
Alotaibi, Bader; Contreras Ovalora, William B.; Nejai, Mohamad S.

Can Sourceless Density LWD Replace Wireline in Exploration Wells? Case Study from Saudi Arabia ................................................................. 72
Alakeely, Abdullah; Meridji, Yacine

Case Study: Application of Azimuthal Resistivity, Azimuthal Density, and Resistivity Inversion to Geosteering in a Clastic Stringer, Saudi Arabia ................................................................. 89
Saini, Craig; Martakon, Sergey; Mumtaz, Asim; Al-Dhaferi, Yusef; Al-Khalfi, Nasser; Sinha, Sashi; Al-Sultan, Abbi

Characterization of Crude Oil of Upper Assam Field for Flow Assurance ................................................................. 99
Jha, Nilesh Kumar; Jamal, Mohammad Shahid; Singh, Diwakar; Prasad, Uma Shanker

Characterization of Heavy Properties in a Complex Shallow Miocene Reservoir in Saudi Arabia using NMR and Other Advanced Log Measurements ................................................................. 108
Idris, Umar; Hursan, Gabor; Saudungaray, Pablo; Azim, Hisham

Characterization of Next-Generation Heavy Oil of Tar Mats in Carbonate Reservoirs and Understanding Its Role in Reserve Estimation and Oil Recovery Economics ................................................................................................................................. 119
Almansour, Abdullah; Al-Bazzaz, Waleed; Saraswathy, Geetha; Almohsin, Ayman; Bai, Baojun

CO2 Minimum Miscible Pressure (MMP) Estimation using Multiple Linear Regression (MLR) Technique ................................................................. 137
Alomair, Osamah; Iqbal, Maqsood

Comprehensive Reservoir Monitoring Program: Challenges, Design, Implementation, and Added Value in a Large Carbonate Reservoir ................................................................. 144
Al-Jaila, Ali; Al-Dawood, Naseem

CT Extended Reach Acid Stimulation in Openhole Wells, Offshore Saudi Arabia: A 23-Well Case Study ................................................................. 150
Arulke, James; Hanbtzazah, Shadi; Ahmari, Abdulrahman; Adesegha, Rostimi; Perez, Joao; Noguera, Jose; Krishnan, Gopi; Nakwua, Amit

Data Assimilation of InSAR Measurements for Large Scale Reservoirs ................................................................................................................................. 158
Katterbauer, Klemens; Hoteit, Ibrahim; Sun, Shuyu

Density-Driven Flow Simulation in Anisotropic Porous Media: Application to CO2 Geological Sequestration ................................................................................................................................. 168
Negara, Ardiansyah; Salama, Amgad; Sun, Shuyu

Design and Development of Non-aqueous Suspension for Suspending Varied-sized Solid Particulates as a Conventional Diverter ................................................................................................................................. 184
Agashe, Snehalata; Patil, Prajaka; Raysoni, Neelam; Pandya, Nisha

Development of Mature Fields Using Reservoir Opportunity Index: A Case Study from a Saudi Field ................................................................................................................................. 192
Varela-Pineda, Alfonso; Hatheli, Ahmed H.; Mutairi, Saad M.

Downhole Electrical Disconnect Tool Enables the Parting and Subsequent Re-Connection of the Upper Completion Containing an ESP from the Lower Intelligent Completion ................................................................................................................................. 203
Izetti, Ronaldo; Pinto, Hardy; Rosas, Fabio; Minassa, Lorenzo; Vayeda, Ravi; Deyo, Benjamin; Bhat, Gireesh; Rodrigues, Desiderio; Bonfim, Antonio

Dynamic Reservoir Characterization with PTA: Clastic Environments ................................................................................................................................. 211
